

HKDSE Results 2020

1. One hundred and twenty-five students sat the Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination. The overall pass rate (Level 2 or above) for all subjects is 96.8% which is higher than the Hong Kong average of 84.8%.
2. The pass rates for 13 subjects are higher than the Hong Kong averages. Students achieved 100% pass rates in Biology, BAFS (Business Management), Chemistry, Chinese History, Economics, Geography, Information & Communication Technology, Physics, and Tourism & Hospitality Studies.
3. Students achieved credits and distinctions (Level 4 or above) in 13 subjects at higher rates than the Hong Kong averages.
4. 54.4% of the students met university entrance requirements, which is higher than the Hong Kong average of 37.3%.
5. 92% of the students met sub-degree entrance requirements, which is higher than the Hong Kong average of 70.3%.